Mr. Browne will present on topics of importance to today's professionals from a real-world, experience-based perspective. Topics will include crisis leadership and management, as well as recognizing and conducting good training vs. bad training. He will also present a "mission debrief" from his perspective as the Security Team Leader on the 1990 Raid on Carcell Modelo that freed CIA Operative Kurt Muse from a torturous Panamanian Prison where he was held illegally by Manuel Noriega. Considerations for "Active Shooter" response will also be covered, and more.

Δ PRESENTER'S BIOGRAPHY Δ

Sergeant Major Browne is a retired Special Forces Leader. Within the Special Operations community he is a recognized master trainer of Special Operations Skills such as: Hostage Rescue, CQB, Pistol & Rifle Marksmanship, Leadership, HALO, Breaching, Explosive Technology, Anti-Terrorism, Intelligence Fusion and Counter-Insurgency.

He served in Beirut Lebanon in 1983, 84 and 89 as a security team leader, intelligence collector and advisor to the US Ambassador. In 1990 he was the security team leader on the Delta Force Raid to rescue Kurt Muse from Modelo Prison in Panama. For his leadership role in the planning, rehearsals and ultimate success of the raid he was awarded the Bronze Star Medal with "V" device for valor. During Operation Desert Storm he led a 10 man Delta Team deep into Iraqi territory 3 weeks before the ground war started. His success in that strategic mission allowed the National Command Authority and Gen. Swartzkopf time to complete preparations and execute the ground war on terms most advantageous to the US and the coalition. He was awarded a Joint Service Commendation Medal with "V" Device for Valor and personal medal of commendation from the Royal Kuwaiti Family.

Mr. Browne served as a security advisor to the US Embassy mission in Lebanon, El Salvador, Peru, Panama, Jordan and Iraq. As a counter insurgency advisor to the U. S. Central Command in Iraq Mr. Browne assisted and advised on counter insurgency combat missions that have put several High Value Targets in prison in Abu Ghraib Prison, Cropper Holding Facility and the Guantanamo Bay Detention Camp.

Sergeant Major Browne's Military Schools and Awards include; 1st SFOD-D Operator Training Course, The Special Forces Tab, Ranger Tab, Jumpmaster, HALO Jumpmaster, Legion of Merit, Combat Infantryman's Badge

Mr. Browne will present Leadership at all levels and it's affects within individual law enforcement agencies, and it's impact on perception within the community. Leadership seminar will emphasize leadership principles and traits. Mentoring and developing leaders as well as different leadership styles for subordinates, superiors and interacting with the media and community.

The theme of the training block is how training mitigates risk. Training will be discussed as it relates to law enforcement and security force skills sets. Well planned and conducted training results in higher quality officers, increased budget retention and a decrease in safety incidents. A short discussion of Ethics in Leadership will be included as well as common pitfalls of the newly promoted and counseling as a means to increase subordinate performance and leader effectiveness.

The last hours of the day will be devoted to a slide presentation with in depth discussion of the Delta Force Raid on Modelo Prison to liberate CIA operative Kurt Muse. Mr. Browne was an integral leader and planner in the operation and his insight is as provocative and insightful today as it was then. A 1 hour Q and A will close the session. This seminar is designed to train and prepare every level of law enforcement for the leadership challenges we will all certainly face in the future.
